

Season 3 Episode 15

Fusion for Mayor

Jason and Mason enter a Chinese buffet where they have a pond with coy fish and they have statues of Buddha laughing and fountains of naked gods. Jason and Mason walk around the place and they see a large table filled with party favors and Captain Fusion is at the center of the table. Jason and Mason go to the table. Captain Fusion said, "Welcome, Jason and Mason. I'm glad you could come to my 66th birthday party." Mason said, "We're glad to come." Jason said, "When is the grub going to come? I have a major league craving on the barbeque shrimp and the golden fried lemon fish." Fusion said, "Well... hey, Admiral Lightning is here." Admiral Lightning holds a diamond and walks between Jason and Mason. Captain Fusion said, "Guest of honor. I'm glad you can make it." Admiral Lightning said, "I see you have not changed much in the last year." Captain Fusion said, "Genetic augmentation has kept me from aging." More people show up. Captain Fusion stands at the center of the table. Captain Fusion said, "Good people. I am glad you can all come. It really is an honor that I have lived to be this age and still able to keep this fair city safe from the forces of evil." One of the guests said, "When are we going to get the grub?" Captain Fusion said, "All in good time." Another person said, "Why is Captain Fusion at the center of the attention?" Captain Fusion said, "Well, this is my birthday party, so it only makes sense that I would be the center of attention." That man said, "Captain Fusion's birthday party? I thought this was the mayor's reception." The mayor walks by and he goes to another large table. Almost everyone leaves Captain Fusion's table and they go to join the mayor.

People keep asking the mayor questions. People say, "How are you going to win the upcoming election." The mayor said, "I will think of something." Another man said, "How's the stimulus package doing?" The mayor said, "I don't know about that." Another man said, "What are you going to do about the prison riot that left a bunch of criminals free and out on the street?" The mayor begins to sweat and he pulls on his collar. Captain Fusion said, "We place superheroes on every corner on the street and we keep on the lookout. Offer rewards to people that call us with information. If we all pull together, we can be the greatest hero of all time and keep the city a thriving place for all of us." Everyone leaves the mayor's table and they go to Captain Fusion's table. Captain Fusion pulls out a map of the city and he draws on the points that have super villain lairs. Captain Fusion said, "If I had the authority to do so, I would send police to all these lairs and raid them." Everyone claps their hands. Someone said, "You handle the city better than the mayor can. Maybe you should be the next mayor?" Captain Fusion said, "That sounds like a good idea." Captain Fusion points to the mayor and he said, "You're on!" The Mayor looks at his watch and he said, "When will he be here?"

The wall to the restaurant explodes and Clock King is on the other side of the wall. Clock King said, "I have arrived. Captain Fusion is doomed." Everyone screams and panics. They hide under tables. Captain Fusion confronts Clock King. Captain Fusion said, "It does not seem like you to raid a Chinese Buffet like this." Clock King said, "I'm only doing this because I want to show the city you are weak so the mayor could win the upcoming election." Captain Fusion and everyone else gives the mayor a dirty look. Captain Fusion walks up to the mayor and he grabs him by his collar and holds him up to the wall. Captain Fusion said, "You paid a criminal to help promote you? You sicken me." The mayor said, "It is not what it seems." Captain Fusion said, "That's what they all say." Captain Fusion takes out a book of the city rules. Captain Fusion looks through them. Captain Fusion said, "It says here that paying a criminal to do your dirty work is a crime and criminals are not allowed to run for mayor. You are a criminal and therefore, you cannot run for mayor and the election is in a few weeks." Clock King grabs a gold Chinese sundial and he throws it at Captain Fusion while he is focused on the mayor. Captain Fusion turns around and grabs the sundial and he throws it back at Clock King. Clock King's screen cracks and he falls to the floor. The police show up and they arrest the Clock King and the Mayor."

Jason, Mason, Captain Fusion, and Admiral Lightning are in Captain Fusion's lair. Admiral Lightning said, "I doubted you when I first heard of you. You took on big challenges but you passed them. I don't see how you will get through with this one." Captain Fusion said, "San Francisco deserves a better mayor and who knows the city better than, me?" The TV turns on and Russ Powers is on the screen. Mason has a disgusted look on his face and Jason said, "Russ Powers? What does that moron want this time?" Russ Powers said, "This is Russ Powers and this is my official campaign channel. This channel shows nonstop Russ Powers PSAs and ads 24/7. I have been pardoned for things I may have done before and now I have moved to the city level of government and I will be running for mayor. I really do care about my people and about child safety. If you vote for me, you will be safe for the foreseeable future." Jason said, "What are we going to do about Russ?" Captain Fusion said, "That's the one of the only villains I could not beat that Jason and Mason defeated." Jason said, "I don't have braces this time." Captain Fusion said, "We need to set up a campaign office." Mason said, "My lab is very accessible. We could have it there." Captain Fusion said, "That sounds like a good idea. Let's do that."

In Jason and Mason's yard, Jason and Mason hold up signs promoting Captain Fusion. Captain Fusion gets on the podium. Captain Fusion said, "Vote for me and you will get rewarded for being a fair citizen." Captain Fusion sticks out his left hand and the American Flag flies behind him. Russ Powers shows up to the yard. Russ is with Keith and the Multiplier. Russ takes the podium. Russ said, "Ignore these folks. They are just fools in tights." Admiral Lightning said, "Who are you calling a fool in tights? I fought the forces of evil when your parents were just dating." Russ said, "That sounds lovely." Keith is wearing a pin that promotes Russ. Mason said, "You're in this too?" Keith said, "Russ Powers is a man for a more sophisticated caliber." The Multiplier is there. The Multiplier takes the stage and he said, "Russ Powers is the best and he is one man while I am many." Mason said, "This is an outrage. Where are all these people coming from? People from the rival side are going into our yard. You have the honors, Jason." A UFO lands in the yard. Jason walks out of it dressed as an alien. The alien said, "I am the thing from Uranus and I am watching this election. My people want Captain Fusion to win. We like the votes the..." The UFO explodes and it rains metal over the yard. Everyone leaves and robots come out with fire extinguishers.

The campaign people sit in Mason's lab. Mason said, "Our campaign is doomed." George Ferrier said, "It most certainly is, Captain Fusion." They look at the TV and George Ferrier is on the screen. George Ferrier said, "There was an explosion at Captain Fusion's campaign headquarters today and the polls are in. It seems as if people are losing interest in Captain Fusion. It seems like Russ is getting more of the vote. I am here with Keith, Russ' campaign manager. What do you have to say, Keith." Keith said, "Captain Fusion sucks. I went to his campaign place since the sign did read the whole town was invited." Keith holds out the invitation sign. Keith said, "I have metal in my hair now from that UFO explosion." George Ferrier said, "Do you really want a mayor that contaminates your hair with bits of metal?" George Ferrier of DDD News."

At Russ' campaign office. Russ sits at a desk and he said, "I think we have the upper hand. We will do everything from here and no one will find us because no one is stupid enough to look through toxic waste. If I win, I will pour this waste into the water supply forcing people to by detoxic filters made by Keith. We will become rich beyond our wildest dreams and Captain Fusion's reputation will be so ruined that he will have to go into exile again." Multiplier said, "I hope Captain Fusion does not remember this location." Russ said, "What do you mean?" Multiplier said, "Well, I did battle Captain Fusion here once." Russ places his hand over his face. Russ said, "You idiot! Captain Fusion saw you at the rally today and he will remember you were with me. He even keeps the location of all the villain lairs in the city if you remember. We are doomed." Keith said, "Not yet. I have a ton of gadgets that are better than anything Mason has. Captain Fusion will not stand a chance towards any of them and Jason and Mason will not know what to do with Captain Fusion incapacitated." Russ said, "You really are the life saver, Keith." Keith said, "You don't need to thank me."

Jason, Mason, Captain Fusion, and Admiral Lightning are in the Fusion Mobile. Admiral Lightning stares at his diamond again. Captain Fusion looks over the computer in the Fusion Mobile. Captain Fusion said, "My computer is telling me the location of the Multiplier's lair. It is still in here from memory." They arrive at a mound of toxic waste. Jason said, "It looks like the place is a waste dump now." Captain Fusion said, "My computer did not detect any of this waste." Admiral Lightning said, "It is a trick. They want us to think this is a waste mound. Watch me." Admiral Lightning leaves the Fusion Mobile and he goes to the front of the waste mound. Admiral Lightning looks over it and he sees a green knob in the waste. Admiral Lightning twists the knob and it opens a door. He waves to Jason, Mason, and Captain Fusion. They leave the Fusion Mobile and they head out to the mound and into the door.

They see green hallways and they see they are in a maze. Captain Fusion said, "We should not split up. We need to stay together." They walk through the halls and they see that they are walking in a circle. Jason said, "Great. We just keep on walking in circles." Jason rests his elbow on the side of the wall and a trap door opens up and the team falls into the trap door. They fall down a chute and they land in a lair that is a metal floor above a pool of toxic waste. Russ Powers turns to them in his seat. He said, "What an honor it is for all of you to meet your end." Captain Fusion said, "We know your plan and it will not work." Russ said, "That's what they all say." Russ presses a button and 50's looking robots appear and they grab onto Jason and Mason. Captain Fusion punches one of them in the face and he kicks the other one down freeing Jason and Mason. A humanoid fighting robot comes out and it does Kung Fu moves at Captain Fusion. Captain Fusion grabs onto one of its hands and he twists it backwards and the Kung Fu humanoid fighting robot falls to the floor. Captain Fusion said, "Give up. You know what I can do." Russ waves his hand around and Keith shows up covered in glowing red gadgets." Jason and Mason are standing on the sidelines watching in horror at what is happening. Admiral Lightning is completely ignoring it and is looking at a diamond that he always carries with him. Mason looks at Admiral Lightning and he said, "How could you be enjoying a diamond now at a time like this?" Admiral Lightning does nothing.

Keith extends his right arm and a glowing red whip comes out and it wraps around Captain Fusion's wrist and Keith twists Captain Fusion's wrist around. Captain Fusion steps on the whip and he pulls Keith up to him and Captain Fusion extends his fist and it collides with Keith's armor. Captain Fusion's fist breaks and it expands in pain and it beats. Captain Fusion looks at Keith and he said, "What kind of trickery is this?" Keith said, "Something you will never understand." Keith throws another red whip and it wraps around Captain Fusion's body and he flips Captain Fusion in the air and Keith places his foot on Captain Fusion and he smashes him into the floor. Jason and Mason's eyes go big. Jason said, "We can't let this Keith destroy our favorite hero like this." Mason said, "What are we going to do?" Mason empties his pockets and gadgets and other things rain out. Mason said, "None of this stuff will be useful against Keith." Jason gets on his knees and he begs in front of Admiral Lightning. Jason said, "Good Admiral. We need your help. This is our desperate hour." Admiral Lightning said, "Hold your horses kid." Admiral Lightning gets a tight grip on his diamond and he walks up to Keith. Keith said, "You want a round of pain too?" Admiral Lightning said, "The tables are turned this time." Keith extends his whip arms and Admiral Lightning cuts them off with his diamond. Keith's eyes go big. Admiral Lightning runs for Keith and Keith runs away. Keith trips on part of his armor and Admiral Lightning uses his diamond and he cuts up Keith's armor. Keith's armor is completely broken off. Admiral Lightning sees Russ. Russ panics and he presses another button. Then the Multiplier shows up and he is five of himself. Admiral Lightning looks at them and he said, "Decisions, decisions..." Admiral Lightning throws his diamond at one of them and it happens to be the correct one. All the other Multipliers disappear and there is just one and he is knocked out on the floor. Admiral Lightning extends his hand and the diamond flies back into his hand. He walks up to Russ. Russ presses more buttons and he cannot escape. Admiral Lightning said, "Diamonds are forever and they never lie. They know right from wrong." Stars fly on the screen.

George Ferrier is in the news room. George Ferrier said, "George Ferrier of DDD News here. The election results are in. It seems Captain Fusion is the new mayor of San Francisco and he has lost by a large margin to his rival, Russ Powers. It seems we have another gold age for San Francisco coming up." Captain Fusion sits in the mayor's office. Jason, Mason, and Admiral Lightning are there too. Jason said, "Admiral Lightning is awesome. I never read any of those comics myself but he is a great hero. How does that diamond of yours work?" Admiral Lightning said, "That's a story for another time." Captain Fusion looks over papers and documents and he goes to the computer to look over his stats. Captain Fusion said, "Taxes are nominal, and prisons are nominal and everything else looks good now with the new Fusion Rules in place." Clock King enters the office. He said, "I have your mail for you here sir." Captain Fusion said, "Thanks sir." Captain Fusion said, "Part of my new Fusion Rules is to give criminals useful jobs, like giving me my mail." Captain Fusion looks through the mail. Captain Fusion said, "Car insurance expired? Oh wait, it is for the other mayor."
